

$0 specialty medications.

You can save money on certain medications you fill at an in-network specialty pharmacy.

You have the option to use SaveOnSP's copay assistance service¹ to help pay for certain specialty medications.

You decide how much you want to pay out-of-pocket.

If you're filling an eligible medication,² you should think about using this copay assistance service.

- If you use the service, you'll pay as little as $0 out-of-pocket for your medication after you meet your deductible.
- If you choose not to use the service, after you meet your deductible, you'll pay a 30% coinsurance to fill your medication. You can use the Price a Medication tool on the myCigna® App³ or myCigna.com® to see how much your medication will cost. Your coinsurance won't count toward your out-of-pocket maximum.

Here's an example of how it works.⁴

Anna's filling an eligible specialty medication. Her copay is currently $70. When her new plan year starts, her coverage will change, and her new cost-share will be 30% coinsurance. She then has a choice to make:

- Use the service: She'll pay $0 out-of-pocket.*
- Don't use the service: She'll pay $1,000 out-of-pocket* (her 30% coinsurance).

* Her cost-share won't count toward her out-of-pocket maximum.
